SAUER ARTEMIS.
A WOMAN'S WEAPON.

SAUER ARTEMIS. WOMEN POWER!

Women are strong, brave and confident hunters, as mothers have been passing on the hunting tradition to their daughters for decades. Once a male domain, women have long since conquered hunting for themselves. They not only set high standards for their hunting skills, but also to their choice of equipment.

Their rifle is more than just a tool; it is a reliable hunting companion that goes through any terrain with its owner. However, their choice of rifle is also an expression of their own values and personality.

For the Sauer Artemis line, we have interviewed and measured over 2,000 women. We designed, developed and optimised the stock, ensuring to focus on achieving intuitive and precise shooting in all conditions. From the S 505, the S 100 and S 101 to the S 303, female hunters appreciate the timeless elegance of their Sauer Artemis. Numerous enhancements give the Artemis models their individual touch.

Experience a new generation of rifles for women!

SAUER ARTEMIS

For our Artemis line, we have not only optimised the stock dimensions, but have also completely redesigned the Artemis collection. The entire stock is based on the geometry of female body dimensions.

Among other enhancements, we have created a sleeker pistol grip and also shortened the distance between the pistol grip and the trigger blade by two centimetres, which suits women's petite hands much better.

A Pistol grip optimised for female hands.

B Two centimetres shorter distance between pistol grip and trigger blade for optimum trigger control.

C Shorter buttstock.

D The adjustable comb ensures that the sighting line (E) fits instantly when aiming intuitively.

The S101 Artemis is the epitome of well-balanced compactness: it impresses through its light weight, compact length, sleek pistol grip and the reduced distance between the pistol grip and the trigger. The optional, adjustable comb supports intuitive shooting. The chic red recoil pad and other enhancements add to its beauty.

SAUER 505 WITH ARTEMIS STOCK – THE VERSATILE

The S505 with Artemis stock embodies the pure joy of hunting: thanks to a shorter stock, optimised pistol grip and adjustable trigger weights. This ensures both perfect rifle control as well as optimum shooting feeling. The modular design of the S505 opens up a multitude of exclusive upgrade options, like e.g. an adjustable comb.
